LIFE Leadership

<http://www.lifeleadership.com/>

Warren Buffett once said that learning is one of the few things that compounds faster than interest. Indeed, understanding the difference between an investment and an expense is an essential part of financial literacy and success. Unfortunately, the modern world has mastered compound interest working against them while avoiding learning like it's the plague.

However, truly successful people apply Buffett's principles by minimizing compound interest working against them and maximizing compound learning working for them. Essentially, this describes LIFE Leadership and its top selling product – the Financial Fitness Program. Orrin Woodward

We are open to meeting with individuals that are looking, teachable, hungry for different information and honest, and that wants to be free of the financial matrix.
